

MAY 2005

BULLDOG ALUMNUS PROVIDES SECURITY IN IRAQ

Fisher Labs president John Cherekoff, a Fresno State alumnus, recently manufactured and supplied U.S. Marines with 100 M-Scopes—portable walk-through metal detectors—which were used for the Iraqi national elections held in January. The portable detectors can be assembled virtually anywhere, providing quick and effective security for a wide range of locations. Fisher Labs is located in Los Banos, CA.